

Perhaps we may never meet. but if it was so we could. I could tell you something that you would have great pity for me. I was terribly wronged by a woman of bad repute but being only in moderate circumstances. not able financially to defend to the full extent - to catch all who was concerned. For it takes money to do such things. Now I am suffering for the sins of others; those who were my secret enemies. Now I must lose my home for I can not pay the mortgage and my husband's health is not good. and have not been for a long time. During the time of my husband's ill health and other troubles too. I was forced to mortgage my home. and now the time has come & I must settle the debt & after I am sold out
